

Music: Elementary General Music K-8

Uses song, speech, and movement to effectively communicate, collaborate with a group, and produce a musical product.

1 Uses song, speech, and movement to effectively communicate, collaborate with a group, and produce a musical product.

Uses instruments and body percussion to effectively communicate, collaborate with a group, and produce a musical product.

2 Uses instruments and body percussion to effectively communicate, collaborate with a group, and produce a musical product.

Creates music and movement using critical thinking to improvise and compose through a collaborative and flexible process.

3 Creates music and movement using critical thinking to improvise and compose through a collaborative and flexible process.

Demonstrates literacy by reading and notating music fluently using appropriate processes and systems.

4 Demonstrates literacy by reading and notating music fluently using appropriate processes and systems.

Listens, responds, describes, analyzes and evaluates music critically.

5 Listens, responds, describes, analyzes and evaluates music critically.

Recognizes and respects the commonality and diversity among the cultures and histories of 6 Recognizes and respects the commonality and diversity among the cultures and histories of the world through musical experiences.

the world through musical experiences.

Connects music with other disciplines while preserving the integrity of authentic musical learning experiences.

7 Connects music with other disciplines while preserving the integrity of authentic musical learning experiences.