

S.T.A.R. (Students Teaching and Reaching)

Standard 1: STAR students will identify and analyze elements of self and how these relate to others.

Standard 1: STAR students will identify and analyze elements of self and how these relate to others.

Standard 2: STAR students will characterize stages of human development.

Standard 2: STAR students will characterize stages of human development.

Standard 3: STAR students will recognize the impact of diversity on learning.

Standard 3: STAR students will recognize the impact of diversity on learning.

Standard 4: STAR students will recognize the evolution of educational systems.

Standard 4: STAR students will recognize the evolution of educational systems.

Standard 5: STAR students will describe schools as a microcosm of society at large.

Standard 5: STAR students will describe schools as a microcosm of society at large.

Standard 6: STAR students will identify and model effective instruction and assessment practices.

Standard 6: STAR students will identify and model effective instruction and assessment practices.

Standard 7: STAR students will explain the role management plays in the classroom and school.

Standard 7: STAR students will explain the role management plays in the classroom and school.

Standard 8: STAR students will utilize technology to enhance planning and learning.

Standard 8: STAR students will utilize technology to enhance planning and learning.

Standard 9: STAR students will participate in a variety of field experiences.

Standard 9: STAR students will participate in a variety of field experiences.

Standard 10: STAR students will examine qualifications and attributes of effective educators.

Standard 10: STAR students will examine qualifications and attributes of effective educators.