

Minnesota Social Studies

Grades 9, 10, 11, 12

Adopted 2011

Social Studies Standards
Grades 9-12

1. Citizenship and Government

1. Civic Skills

1. Democratic government depends on informed and engaged citizens who exhibit civic skills and values, practice civic discourse, vote and participate in elections, apply inquiry and analysis skills and take action to solve problems and shape public policy.
  1. Demonstrate skills that enable people to monitor and influence state, local and national affairs. 9.1.1.1.1
  2. Demonstrate the skills necessary to participate in the election process, including registering to vote, identifying and evaluating candidates and issues, and casting a ballot. 9.1.1.1.2
  3. Evaluate sources of information and various forms of political persuasion for validity, accuracy, ideology, emotional appeals, bias and prejudice. 9.1.1.1.3
  4. Examine a public policy issue by defining the problem, developing alternative courses of action, evaluating the consequences of each alternative, selecting a course of action, and designing a plan to implement the action and resolve the problem. 9.1.1.1.4

2. Civic Values and Principles of Democracy

2. The United States is based on democratic values and principles that include liberty, individual rights, justice, equality, the rule of law, limited government, common good, popular sovereignty, majority rule and minority rights.
  1. Analyze how constitutionalism preserves fundamental societal values, protects individual freedoms and rights, promotes the general welfare, and responds to changing circumstances and beliefs by defining and limiting the powers of government. 9.1.2.3.1
  2. Identify the sources of governmental authority; explain popular sovereignty (consent of the governed) as the source of legitimate governmental authority in a representative democracy or republic. 9.1.2.3.2
3. The United States is based on democratic values and principles that include liberty, individual rights, justice, equality, the rule of law, limited government, common good, popular sovereignty, majority rule and minority rights.
  3. Define and provide examples of foundational ideas of American government which are embedded in founding era documents: natural rights philosophy, social contract, civic virtue, popular sovereignty, constitutionalism, representative democracy, political factions, federalism and individual rights. 9.1.2.3.3
  4. Analyze how the following tools of civic engagement are used to influence the American political system: civil disobedience, initiative, referendum and recall. 9.1.2.3.4
  5. Analyze the tensions between the government's dual role of protecting individual rights and promoting the general welfare, the struggle between majority rule and minority rights, and the conflict between diversity and unity. 9.1.2.3.5

3. Rights and Responsibilities

4. Individuals in a republic have rights, duties and responsibilities.

1. Analyze the meaning and importance of rights in the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights and subsequent amendments; compare and contrast these with rights in the Minnesota Constitution. 9.1.3.4.1
2. Explain the scope and limits of rights protected by the First and Second Amendments and changes created by legislative action and court interpretation. 9.1.3.4.2
3. Explain the scope and limits of rights of the accused under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Eighth Amendments and changes created by legislative action and court interpretation. 9.1.3.4.3
4. Explain the current and historical interpretations of the principles of due process and equal protection of the law; analyze the protections provided by the Fourteenth Amendment. 9.1.3.4.4
5. Explain the responsibilities and duties for all individuals (citizens and non-citizens) in a republic. 9.1.3.4.5

5. Citizenship and its rights and duties are established by law.

1. Define the legal meaning of citizenship in the United States, describe the process and requirements for citizenship, and explain the duties of citizenship including service in court proceedings (jury duty) and selective service registration (males). 9.1.3.5.1
2. Describe the process of naturalization; explain the role of the federal government in establishing immigration policies. 9.1.3.5.2

4. Governmental Institutions & Political Processes

6. The United States government has specific functions that are determined by the way that power is delegated and controlled among various bodies: the three levels (federal, state, local) and the three branches (legislative, executive, judicial) of government.

1. Explain federalism and the provisions of the United States Constitution which delegate to the federal government the powers necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was established; distinguish between those powers and the powers retained by the people and the states. 9.1.4.6.1
2. Explain the purposes, organization, functions and processes of the legislative branch as enumerated in Article I of the United States Constitution. 9.1.4.6.2
3. Explain the purposes, organization, functions and processes of the executive branch as enumerated in Article II of the United States Constitution. 9.1.4.6.3
4. Explain the purposes, organization, functions and processes of the judicial branch as enumerated in Article III of the United States

Constitution. 9.1.4.6.4

5. Describe the systems of enumerated and implied powers, separation of powers and checks and balances. 9.1.4.6.5
  6. Evaluate the importance of an independent judiciary, judicial review and the rule of law. 9.1.4.6.6
  7. Explain the powers and operations of the State of Minnesota government as defined in its Constitution and its relationship with the federal government. 9.1.4.6.7
  8. Explain the powers and operations of local (county, city, school board, township) government in Minnesota. 9.1.4.6.8
  9. Compare and contrast the budgets of the United States and Minnesota governments describing the major sources of revenue and categories of spending for each. 9.1.4.6.9
7. The primary purposes of rules and laws within the United States constitutional government are to protect individual rights, promote the general welfare and provide order.
    1. Describe the purposes, types, and sources of laws and rules. 9.1.4.7.1
  8. Public policy is shaped by governmental and non-governmental institutions and political processes.
    1. Evaluate the impact of political parties on elections and public policy formation. 9.1.4.8.1
    2. Evaluate the role of interest groups, corporations, think tanks, the media and public opinion on the political process and public policy formation 9.1.4.8.2
  9. Free and fair elections are key elements of the United States political system.
    1. Analyze how the United States political system is shaped by elections and the election process, including the caucus system and procedures involved in voting. 9.1.4.9.1
5. Relationships of the United States to Other Nations and Organizations
    10. The United States establishes and maintains relationships and interacts with indigenous nations and other sovereign nations, and plays a key role in world affairs.
      1. Explain how tribal sovereignty establishes a unique relationship between American Indian Nations and the United States government. 9.1.5.10.1
      2. Evaluate the effectiveness of diplomacy and other foreign policy tools used by the United States government and other nations in historical or contemporary times. 9.1.5.10.2
      3. Explain why governments interact in world affairs; describe how the United States government develops and carries out United States foreign policy, including treaty-making. 9.1.5.10.3

11. International political and economic institutions influence world affairs and United States foreign policy.
  1. Describe how individuals, businesses, labor and other groups influence United States foreign policy. 9.1.5.11.1
  2. Explain the role of international law in world affairs; evaluate the impact of the participation of nation states in international organizations. 9.1.5.11.2
12. Governments are based on different political philosophies and purposes; governments establish and maintain relationships with varied types of other governments.
  1. Compare the philosophies, structures and operations of different types of governments in other countries with those in the United States. 9.1.5.12.1

2. Economics

1. Economic Reasoning Skills

1. People make informed economic choices by identifying their goals, interpreting and applying data, considering the short- and long-run costs and benefits of alternative choices and revising their goals based on their analysis.
  1. Apply reasoned decision-making techniques in making choices; explain why different individuals, households, organizations and/or governments faced with the same alternatives might make different choices. 9.2.1.1.1

2. Personal Finance

2. Personal and financial goals can be achieved by applying economic concepts and principles to personal financial planning, budgeting, spending, saving, investing, borrowing and insuring decisions
  1. Establish financial goals; make a financial plan considering budgeting and asset building to meet those goals; and determine ways to track the success of the plan. 9.2.2.2.1
  2. Evaluate investment options using criteria such as risk, return, liquidity and time horizon; evaluate and apply risk management strategies in investing and insuring decisions. 9.2.2.2.2
  3. Evaluate the benefits and costs of credit; describe the "three C's" of credit (character, capacity and collateral) and explain how these attributes can affect one's ability to borrow, rent, get a job and achieve other financial goals. 9.2.2.2.3
  4. Explain the pricing, sales, advertising and other marketing strategies used to sell products from a consumer perspective. 9.2.2.2.4

3. Fundamental Concepts

3. Because of scarcity, individuals, organizations and governments must evaluate trade-offs, make choices and incur costs.
  1. Identify the incentives and trade-offs related to a choice made by an individual, household, organization or government; describe the opportunity cost of a choice; and analyze the consequences of a choice (both intended and unintended). 9.2.3.3.1
4. Economic systems differ in the ways that they address the three basic economic issues of allocation, production and distribution to meet society's broad economic goals
  1. Explain how the availability of productive resources and technology limits the production of goods and services. 9.2.3.4.1
  2. Compare and contrast the characteristics of traditional, command (planned), market-based (capitalistic) and mixed economic systems. 9.2.3.4.2
  3. Define broad economic goals and describe the trade-offs that exist between them; evaluate how different economic systems achieve these goals in theory and in practice. 9.2.3.4.3

4. Microeconomic Concepts

5. Individuals, businesses and governments interact and exchange goods, services and resources in different ways and for different reasons; interactions between buyers and sellers in a market determines the price and quantity exchanged of a good, service or resource.
  1. Describe the role of households, businesses and governments in the movement of resources, goods and services, and money in an economy. 9.2.4.5.1
  2. Describe the role of markets in the movement of resources, goods and services, and money in an economy. 9.2.4.5.2
  3. Explain that market demand is based on each buyer's willingness and ability to pay and the number of buyers in the market; analyze the effect of factors that can change demand. 9.2.4.5.3
  4. Explain that market supply is based on each seller's cost and the number of sellers in the market; analyze the effect of factors that can change supply. 9.2.4.5.4
  5. Use demand and supply curves to explain how the equilibrium price and quantity in a market is determined as buyers and sellers adjust their offers in response to shortages or surpluses. 9.2.4.5.5
  6. Explain how changes (shifts) in the demand and supply of an item result in changes in its market price and quantity; explain how these shifts can lead to changes in prices and quantities in other markets. 9.2.4.5.6
6. Profit provides an incentive for individuals and businesses; different business organizations and market structures have an effect on the profit, price and production of goods and services
  1. Compare and contrast characteristics of various market structures. 9.2.4.6.1
  2. Explain the impact of various market structures on long-run profit, price, production, and efficiency in the market. 9.2.4.6.2
7. Resource markets and financial markets determine wages, interest rates and commodity prices.
  1. Explain the role of productivity, human capital, unions, demographics and government policies in determining wage rates and income in labor markets. 9.2.4.7.1
  2. Explain the role of financial institutions and credit markets in the acquisition of capital. 9.2.4.7.2
  3. Describe commodities as natural resources necessary to produce goods and services; explain how world events and market speculation can affect commodity and other prices. 9.2.4.7.3
8. Market failures occur when markets fail to allocate resources efficiently or meet other goals, and this often leads to government attempts to correct the problem.

1. Identify and analyze market failures caused by a lack of competition, lack of resource mobility (barriers), and lack of perfect information; evaluate the rationale and effectiveness of government attempts to remedy these problems. 9.2.4.8.1
  2. Identify and analyze market failures caused by poorly-defined or poorly-enforced property rights, externalities, and public goods; evaluate the rationale and effectiveness of government attempts to remedy these problems. 9.2.4.8.2
  3. Identify measures of income distribution, wealth distribution and poverty and explain how these affect, and are affected by, the economy; evaluate the effectiveness of, and incentives created by, government income redistribution programs. 9.2.4.8.3
5. Macroeconomic Concepts
9. Economic performance (the performance of an economy toward meeting its goals) can be measured, and is affected by, various long-term factors.
    1. Measure economic growth in terms of percentage changes in real Gross Domestic Product over time; analyze past and recent data to identify factors that promote or impair long-run economic growth and its sustainability. 9.2.5.9.1
    2. Measure inflation in terms of a percentage change in a price index; analyze past and recent data to explain how the money supply is related to long-run inflation with the equation of exchange. 9.2.5.9.2
    3. Measure full employment in terms of the unemployment rate and various types of unemployment; analyze past and recent data to describe factors that impact the long-run growth of jobs in an economy. 9.2.5.9.3
  10. The overall levels of output, employment and prices in an economy fluctuate in the short run as a result of the spending and production decisions of households, businesses, governments and others.
    1. Describe factors that can lead to changes in short-run total spending (by households, businesses, governments and foreigners) and changes in short-run output. 9.2.5.10.1
    2. Use a short-run aggregate demand and aggregate supply model to describe changes in output, employment and the price level. 9.2.5.10.2
  11. The overall performance of an economy can be influenced by the fiscal policies of governments and the monetary policies of central banks.
    1. Explain how various government fiscal policies are likely to impact overall output, employment and the price level. 9.2.5.11.1
    2. Describe how various monetary policies of the Federal Reserve are implemented; explain how they are likely to impact overall output, employment, and the price level. 9.2.5.11.2
    3. Explain fiscal and monetary policies from various perspectives; provide arguments from one's own perspective, supported by analysis, for a policy change that should be adopted. 9.2.5.11.3

4. Evaluate the impact of at least two United States Supreme Court decisions on the United States economy. 9.2.5.11.4
12. International trade, exchange rates and international institutions affect individuals, organizations and governments throughout the world.
  1. Apply the principles of absolute and comparative advantage to explain the increase in world production due to specialization and trade; identify the groups that benefit and lose with free-trade treaties, trading blocs and trade barriers. 9.2.5.12.1
  2. Explain how the demand and supply of currencies determines exchange rates and, in turn, affects trade. 9.2.5.12.2

3. Geography

1. Geospatial Skills

1. People use geographic representations and geospatial technologies to acquire, process and report information within a spatial context.
  1. Create tables, graphs, charts, diagrams and various kinds of maps including symbol, dot and choropleth maps to depict the geographic implications of current world events or to solve geographic problems. 9.3.1.1.1
  2. Apply geographic information from a variety of print and electronic sources to interpret the past and present and plan for the future; provide rationale for using specific technologies for each application. 9.3.1.1.2
2. Geographic Inquiry is a process in which people ask geographic questions and gather, organize and analyze information to solve problems and plan for the future.
  1. Use geospatial technologies to make and justify decisions about the best location for facilities. 9.3.1.2.1
  2. Use geospatial technologies to develop plans for analyzing and solving local and regional problems that have spatial dimensions. 9.3.1.2.2

2. Places and Regions

3. Places have physical characteristics (such as climate, topography and vegetation) and human characteristics (such as culture, population, political and economic systems).
  1. Make inferences and draw conclusions about the physical and human characteristics of places based on a comparison of maps and other geographic representations and geospatial technologies. 9.3.2.3.1
4. People construct regions to identify, organize and interpret areas of the earth's surface, which simplifies the earth's complexity.
  1. Apply geographic models to explain the location of economic activities and land use patterns in the United States and the world. 9.3.2.4.1
  2. Identify the primary factors influencing the regional pattern of economic activities in the United States and the world. 9.3.2.4.2
  3. Explain how technological and managerial changes associated with the third agricultural revolution, pioneered by Norman Borlaug, have impacted regional patterns of crop and livestock production. 9.3.2.4.3
  4. Describe patterns of production and consumption of agricultural commodities that are traded among nations. 9.3.2.4.4

3. Human Systems

5. The characteristics, distribution and migration of human populations on the earth's surface influence human systems (cultural, economic and political systems).
  1. Describe the patterns of human population distribution in the United States and major regions of the world. 9.3.3.5.1

2. Use the demographic transition model to analyze and explain the impact of changing birth and death rates in major world regions. 9.3.3.5.2
3. Compare the population characteristics of places at a range of scales using population pyramids, birth and death rates, and other key demographic variables. 9.3.3.5.3
4. Explain migration patterns in the modern era at a range of scales, local to global. 9.3.3.5.4
6. Geographic factors influence the distribution, functions, growth and patterns of cities and human settlements.
  1. Describe the factors influencing the growth and spatial distribution of large cities in the contemporary world. 9.3.3.6.1
  2. Analyze how transportation and communication systems have affected the development of systems of cities. 9.3.3.6.2
  3. Describe how changes in transportation and communication technologies affect the patterns and processes of urbanization of the United States. 9.3.3.6.3
  4. Describe the factors (transportation, government policies, economic development, and changing cultural values) that shape and change urban and suburban areas in the United States. Use generally accepted models to explain the internal spatial structure of cities in regions of the United States and other regions in the world. 9.3.3.6.4
7. The characteristics, distribution and complexity of the earth's cultures influence human systems (social, economic and political systems).
  1. Explain the spread of culture using the concept of diffusion and diffusion models. 9.3.3.7.1
  2. Describe the spatial distribution of significant cultural and/or ethnic groups in the United States and the world and how these patterns are changing. 9.3.3.7.2
  3. Explain how social, political and economic processes influence the characteristics of places and regions. 9.3.3.7.3
8. Processes of cooperation and conflict among people influence the division and control of the earth's surface.
  1. Define the concepts of nationalism and sovereign political states and explain how sovereignty is impacted by international agreements. 9.3.3.8.1
  2. Describe the effects of nationalism and supranationalism on the establishment of political boundaries and economic activities 9.3.3.8.2
  3. Analyze the impact of colonialism on the emergence of independent states and the tensions that arise when the boundaries of political units do not correspond to the nationalities or ethnicities of the people living within them. 9.3.3.8.3
4. Human Environment Interaction

9. The environment influences human actions; and humans both adapt to and change, the environment.
  1. Analyze the interconnectedness of the environment and human activities (including the use of technology), and the impact of one upon the other. 9.3.4.9.1
10. The meaning, use, distribution and importance of resources changes over time.
  1. Describe patterns of production and consumption of fossil fuels that are traded among nations. 9.3.4.10.1

4. History

1. Historical Thinking Skills

2. Historical inquiry is a process in which multiple sources and different kinds of historical evidence are analyzed to draw conclusions about how and why things happened in the past.
  1. Pose questions about topics in history; suggest possible answers and write a thesis; locate and organize primary and secondary sources; analyze them for credibility and bias; corroborate information across the sources; use sources to support or refute the thesis; and present supported findings. 9.4.1.2.1
  2. Evaluate alternative interpretations of historical events; use historical evidence to support or refute those interpretations. 9.4.1.2.2

3. World History

6. Environmental changes and human adaptation enabled human migration from Africa to other regions of the world. (The Beginnings of Human History: 200,000-8000 BCE)
  1. Develop a timeline that traces the migration of the earliest humans from Africa to other world regions, including the Americas; analyze the environmental factors that enabled their migration to other world regions and the ways in which they adapted to different environments. (The Beginnings of Human History: 200,000-8000 BCE) 9.4.3.6.1
7. The emergence of domestication and agriculture facilitated the development of complex societies and caused far-reaching social and cultural effects. (Early Civilizations and the Emergence of Pastoral Peoples: 8000 BCE-2000 BCE)
  1. Locate on a map and describe when and how humans began to domesticate wild plants and animals and develop agricultural societies. (Early Civilizations and the Emergence of Pastoral Peoples: 8000 BCE-2000 BCE) 9.4.3.7.1
  2. Compare and contrast the cultural differences between the hunter gatherer and early agricultural societies. (Early Civilizations and the Emergence of Pastoral Peoples: 8000 BCE-2000 BCE) 9.4.3.7.2
8. The development of interregional systems of communication and trade facilitated new forms of social organization and new belief systems. (Classical Traditions, Belief Systems and Giant Empires: 2000)
  1. Describe the development, characteristics, and decline of civilizations in Africa, East Asia, and South Asia; describe their interactions. (Classical Traditions, Belief Systems, and Giant Empires: 2000 BCE – 600 CE) 9.4.3.8.1
  2. Describe the development, characteristics, and decline of civilizations in Southwest Asia and around the Mediterranean Sea (Mesopotamia, Egypt, Persia, Greece, Rome); describe their interactions. (Classical Traditions, Belief Systems, and Giant Empires: 2000 BCE – 600 CE) 9.4.3.8.2
  3. Analyze the emergence, development, and impact of religions and philosophies of this era, including Hinduism, Confucianism, Buddhism,

Judaism and Christianity. (Classical Traditions, Belief Systems, and Giant Empires: 2000 BCE – 600 CE) 9.4.3.8.3

9. Hemispheric networks intensified as a result of innovations in agriculture, trade across longer distances, the consolidation of belief systems and the development of new multi-ethnic empires while diseases and climate change caused sharp, periodic fluctuations in global population. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450)
  1. Describe the rise and significance of Islam in Southwest Asia and its expansion and institutionalization into other regions. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.1
  2. Describe the characteristics of the Swahili, Ghana and Mali Songhai cultures in Africa, including trade across longer distances and the impact of Islam. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.2
  3. Compare and contrast the cultures of China (Yuan/Mongol and Ming) and Japan (Heian and early Shogunates), including the consolidation of belief systems. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.3
  4. Analyze the impact of Indian Ocean trade on the cultures in South and Southeast Asia. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.4
  5. Compare and contrast the cultures in eastern and western Europe, including the role of Christianity, feudalism and the impact of diseases and climate change. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.5
  6. Analyze the factors that led to the emergence and expansion of the multi-ethnic Aztec and Inca empires in the Americas. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.6
  7. Describe the intensified exchanges of scientific, artistic and historical knowledge among Europe, Africa and Southwest Asia; evaluate the impact on Christian and Islamic societies. (Post-Classical and Medieval Civilizations and Expanding Zones of Exchange: 600-1450) 9.4.3.9.7
10. New connections between the hemispheres resulted in the "Columbian Exchange," new sources and forms of knowledge, development of the first truly global economy, intensification of coerced labor, increasingly complex societies and shifts in the international balance of power. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750)
  1. Describe the Reformation and Counter-Reformation; analyze their impact throughout the Atlantic world. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.1
  2. Explain the social, political and economic changes in Europe that led to trans-oceanic exploration and colonization. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.2

3. Describe the impact of interactions and negotiations between African leaders and European traders on long-distance trade networks. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.3
4. Describe the interactions and negotiations between Americans (Mayans, Aztecs, Incas) and European explorers, as well as the consequences. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.4
5. Assess the social and demographic impact of the Columbian Exchange on Europe, the Americas and Africa. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.5
6. Compare and contrast the forms of slavery and other non-free labor systems among African, European and Arab societies; analyze the causes and consequences of chattel slavery in the Atlantic. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.6
7. Describe the expansion of the Ottoman empire; define its relationships and exchanges with neighboring societies and religious and ethnic minorities. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.7
8. Analyze the varied responses in China and Japan to increasingly worldwide economic and cultural exchanges. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.8
9. Identify the major intellectual and scientific developments of seventeenth and eighteenth-century Europe; describe the regional and global influences on the European Scientific Revolution and Enlightenment, and assess their impact on global society. (Emergence of the First Global Age: 1450-1750) 9.4.3.10.9
11. Industrialization ushered in wide-spread population growth and migration, new colonial empires and revolutionary ideas about government and political power. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922)
  1. Describe the causes and the regional and global impact of the Industrial Revolution. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.1
  2. Explain the causes and global consequences of the French Revolution and Napoleonic Era. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.2
  3. Describe the independence movements and rebellions in the Caribbean and Central and South America; analyze the social, political and economic causes and consequences of these events. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.3
  4. Compare and contrast the shift from chattel slavery to other forms of labor in different world regions, and its effects on world-wide migration patterns. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.4
  5. Describe the origins and spread of the transatlantic abolition movement; evaluate its effects on the end of the African slave trade and chattel slavery in law and in practice. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.5
  6. Compare and contrast the development and results of state building and nationalism in the nineteenth century. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.6

7. Describe European imperialism; explain its effects on interactions with colonized peoples in Africa and Asia. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.7
8. Compare and contrast the approaches of China and Japan to Western influence. (The Age of Revolutions: 1750-1922) 9.4.3.11.8
12. A rapidly evolving world dominated by industrialized powers, scientific and technological progress, profound political, economic, and cultural change, world wars and widespread violence and unrest produced a half century of crisis and achievement. (A Half Century of Crisis and Achievement: 1900-1950)
  1. Describe the social, political and economic causes and consequences of World War I. (A Half Century of Crisis and Achievement: 1900-1950) 9.4.3.12.1
  2. Describe the rise and effects of communism and socialism in Europe and Asia, including the Bolshevik Revolution (1917) in Russia and the Chinese Revolution (1949). (A Half Century of Crisis & Achievement: 1900-1950) 9.4.3.12.2
  3. Describe the social, political and economic causes and main turning points of World War II. (A Half Century of Crisis and Achievement: 1900-1950) 9.4.3.12.3
  4. Describe the causes and consequences of the Nazi Holocaust, including the effects of the Nazi regime's "war against the Jews" and other groups, and its influence on the 1948 United Nations Declaration of Human Rights and other human rights movements of the post-WW II era. (A Half Century of Crisis and Achievement: 1900-1950) 9.4.3.12.4
